Qualifying Conditions

Old-age pension: If born before December 31, 1951, the pensionable age is age 61 (men) or age 60 (women); age 62 if born from 1952 to 1955; age 63 if born from 1956 to 1958; age 64 if born from 1959 to 1961; age 65 if born on or after January 1, 1962.

The insured must have at least 156 weeks of paid contributions, including an annual average of at least 20 weeks of paid or credited contributions.

Child-raising credit: For each child raised, the insured person receives two years of credited contributions to finance old-age benefits (four years for a child with a disability). The credited periods for child raising can be shared between the parents. The insured (including adoptive parents) must have legal custody of the child who must be younger than age 6 (age 10 if disabled).

Early pension: Age 61, regardless of date of birth. If the insured was born on or after January 1, 1962, he or she must have accumulated at least 2,080 weeks of paid or credited contributions since age 18; if the insured was born between 1952 and 1961, he or she must have accumulated at least 1,820 weeks of paid or credited contributions since age 18 (age 19 if born before May 5, 1958).

Employment must cease.

Partial pension: A reduced pension is paid with an annual average of at least 20 weeks of contributions (flat-rate pension) or 15 weeks of contributions (earnings-related pension).

Income test: Earned income from employment or self-employment from age 61 (men) or age 60 (women) must not exceed the national weekly minimum wage until age 65.

The national weekly minimum wage is €158.11

The old-age pension is payable abroad.

Old-age noncontributory pension (means-tested): Paid if the insured does not meet the contribution conditions for the old-age pension.

Means test: The means test is based on the capital assets and income of the household members.

The old-age noncontributory pension is not payable abroad.

Disability pension: The insured is assessed with a total and permanent incapacity for full-time or part-time work and has at least 250 weeks of paid contributions as an employee or as a self-employed person, including an annual average of at least 20 weeks of paid or credited contributions. The insured must have been in continuous full-time or regular part-time employment or self-employment for at least 12 months before the date of the claim.

For each child raised, the insured person receives two years of credited contributions to finance disability survivor benefits (four years for a child with a disability). The credited periods for child raising can be shared between the parents. The insured (including adoptive parents) must have legal custody of the child who must be younger than age 6 (age 10 if disabled).

Partial pension: A reduced pension is paid with an annual average of at least 20 weeks of contributions.

The disability pension is payable abroad.

Disabled child allowance (noncontributory): A benefit is paid to parents for a child with an assessed disability.

The allowance ceases at age 16 (14 for a child with a visual impairment) and is replaced by the disability pension.

Pension for visually impaired, persons with a disability or severe disability (noncontributory): Paid for visually impaired persons with a disability or severe disability with earnings less than the legal minimum wage.

The noncontributory disability pension is not payable abroad.

Survivor pension: Paid to a widow(er) whose deceased spouse had at least 156 weeks of paid contributions, with an annual average of at least 20 weeks of paid or credited contributions from age 19, or who was of retirement age.

For each child raised, the insured person receives two years of credited contributions to finance survivor benefits (four years for a child with a disability). The credited periods for child raising can be shared between the parents. The insured (including adoptive parents) must have legal custody of the child who must be younger than age 6 (age 10 if disabled).

Partial pension: A reduced pension is paid if the deceased had an annual average of at least 20 weeks of contributions (flat-rate pension) or 15 weeks of contributions (earnings-related pension).

Income test: Income must not exceed the legal minimum wage; widows younger than age 60 with children younger than age 21 qualify for the survivor pension regardless of income.

A widow(er) aged 60 or older without dependent children receives the survivor pension if his or her average weekly earnings do not exceed the legal minimum wage.

The legal weekly minimum wage is €158.11.

In case of remarriage, the widow(er)'s pension ceases five years after the date of remarriage.

Orphan's pension: Paid for the death of both parents. One parent must have been insured and had at least one week of contributions at the time of death.

Survivor benefits are payable abroad.

Old-Age Benefits

Old-age pension: The maximum earnings-related pensions are 66.7% of annual average earnings of the best three consecutive years in the 10 years before retirement for employed or self-employed persons.
